2017 Third Study Abroad Fair ~ Europe Fes ~ was held on 28 June

Europe Fes 2017 was held on 28 June, starting at 12:00 p.m. at Rokkodai 2nd campus, Kobe University Center for International Education.

In the event, experts from external institutions and KU students who studied at partner universities made presentations and gave information on the countries which they come from or they studied in. They were also giving consultations at their booths. The participants were eager to get information they need both at the presentations and the booths. They were asking questions, such as how to improve language skills, lectures, accommodations, and so on. Through this event, the participants had great opportunities to talk with senior students who already studied abroad and finished their job hunting - this made them think about their future plans after their study abroad. Over 50 students participated in the event and the venue was full of friendly atmosphere till the end of the event around 5 pm.

The social gathering organised by SCAA was held right after this event at common room on the 1st floor of the center. At the gathering, those students who already had experience learning abroad and who will study in Europe in the near future spent a fruitful time by exchanging their opinions in the evening.
