

WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE
ERASMUS+ PROGRAMME
OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

知・人・共創と協働

KOBE UNIVERSITY

Kobe University Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence Symposium

Current State of Smart Cities

Thursday, June 23, 2022 14:00–17:00 (JST)

Venue: Rokko Hall of Kobe University Centennial Hall (Hybrid via Zoom)

Language: Japanese-English simultaneous interpretation

Registration: <https://forms.gle/ooAuGVydycpudade8>

- * Prior registration required for both on-site and virtual participation by Jun. 21
- * No registration fee

Program

14:00 Opening Remarks

Tamotsu Nakamura, Director of Institute for Promoting International Partnerships, and Executive Vice President in Charge of University Reform, Digitalization and Evaluation, Kobe University

14:05 Video Messages

Kizo Hisamoto, Mayor of Kobe

Michael Donaldson, Commissioner for Technological Innovation, e-Government and Good Governance of the Barcelona City Council

14:20 Presentations

1) Smart City Initiatives of the Kobe City Government

Yuji Okayama, Deputy Director General, Planning and Coordination Bureau, Kobe City Government

2) Kobe University's Initiatives for Smart City

Nobutada Fujii, Associate Professor of Graduate School of System Informatics, Kobe University

3) Liveable Well-Being City Indicator - A New Smart City Approach from Japan

Takehiko Nagumo, Executive Managing Director of Smart City Institute Japan

4) EU-Japan Researcher Mobility/ Smart Cities or Smarter Communities

Tatsuya Maisawa, Country Representative of EURAXESS Japan

Bernadett Köteles-Degrendele, Senior Advisor (Independent Expert)

15:50 Invited Talk Urgent and Progressive Urbanism in Barcelona

Josep Bohigas, General Manager of Barcelona Regional, Urban Development Agency

16:10 Panel Session [moderated by Nobutada Fujii]

Josep Bohigas and Takehiko Nagumo

16:55 Closing Remarks

Masahiko Yoshii, Chair of Kobe University Jean Monnet CoE

Contact:

Interdisciplinary Education Division, Kobe University
E-mail : stdnt-gks-soumu@office.kobe-u.ac.jp

Host: Kobe University Jean Monnet CoE

Co-host: EURAXESS Japan; EUJ Kansai

Support: Kobe City; Hyogo Prefecture; Economic and Commercial Office of Embassy of Spain in Tokyo