

EU Study Camp and Academic English Intensive Course Spring 2018

EU Study camp and Academic English Intensive Course are designed for KUPES and double-degree students to improve their academic English skills and acquire basic knowledge of the EU. Through the entire programme, students will be split into three groups depending on their level of English ability (based on the English score(s) that are provided on the application form for this camp/course). In the end of this programme, students will be equipped with essential knowledge to study in Europe as well as conventions and practices.

1) EU Study Camp (@Rokko Hoyoso, Nishinomiya): February 14th-15th

2) Academic English Intensive Course (@Kobe University): February 19th-23rd

1) EU Study Camp

Date: February 14th-15th

Venue: at Rokko Hoyoso, Nishinomiya ( <http://www.rokko-hoyoso.jp/>)

Instructors: Students will be taught by 3 instructors (native English speakers)

Fees: Participation and accommodation fees are free for Kobe University students.

Non-Kobe University students have to bear the accommodation fee at their own expense.

Meals to be covered by all students.

Detail and objective of the camp:

This camp is an overnight intensive study to acquire some essential knowledge of the EU/Europe through learning in the lectures/seminars. It is also designed for the students to be able to get to know each other and teachers, and familiarise themselves with English through various learning activities including games and entertainment.

Programme: *details are subject to change.

Wednesday, February 14th

11:00: assemble at JR Sakurashukugawa or Hankyu Railway Shukugawa and leave there by chartered bus (Free)

12:00- lunch

13:00- lectures/seminars

18:30- dinner

19:30-21:30: active study

Thursday, February 15th

8:00- breakfast

9:00- seminars

12:00- lunch

13:00- 15:00 seminars/presentation

16:00- arrive at JR Sakurashukugawa or Hankyu Railway Shukugawa by chartered bus(Free)

2) Academic English Intensive Course

Date: February 19th-23rd

Venue: Frontier Hall for Social Sciences, Rokkodai 1st Campus, Kobe University

Instructors: Students will be taught by a pool of 5 instructors (native English speakers) with ample teaching experience.

Fees: Free

Objective:

The goal for the course is to enable students to prepare for taking English-taught courses of the KUPES as well as study abroad especially in Europe. You will:

(For first year students: K5)

- Acquire basic knowledge of European Studies prior to the commencement of the KUPES programme from April.
- Familiarise with academic English style.
- Gain academic English skills such as listening strategies and presentations.

(For second year students and above: K1 ~K4 and M1)

- Broaden knowledge about European studies
- Acquire the interdisciplinary knowledge regarding European studies
- Improve your academic skills such as presentations, literature reviews prior to study in Europe.

Structure:

This intensive course is composed of lectures and seminars. In the lectures, students learn basic knowledge of the EU and will be given on the following topics:

- 1) Short introduction to Europe 1
- 2) Short introduction to Europe 2
- 3) Current EU cultural and social development 1
- 4) European architecture
- 5) Current EU cultural and social development 2

Time Schedule is found in a separate sheet.