This session will provide an overview of the English Language Program and The School of Continuing Studies at the University of Toronto. In a rapidly changing, and increasingly complex world, lifelong learning becomes a greater priority. Whether it is learning a new language, becoming more career-ready or understanding the world around us, keeping up with change is a necessary priority. This talk will highlight the range of programs, learners and partnerships that enable the School to deliver high quality instruction and student-focused services to a diverse and global audience.
